† PRAYER OF MEDITATION †

Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost

Redeeming Sustainer, visit your people and pour out your strength and courage upon us, that we may hurry to make you welcome not only in our concern for others, but by serving them generously and faithfully in your name. Amen.

Humility

“All who humble themselves will be exalted” (Matthew 23:1–12). Humility isn’t cool these days. And we might wonder if it was a trait folks respected in Jesus’ day. Not so long ago speaking of someone’s humble attitude could be considered a compliment. But then there were also times when an abused or oppressed person was held back from reaching their potential, with an admonition to be humble like Jesus. In those cases it definitely was not helpful.

These days, in our efforts to raise up generations that are more confident in their abilities and essential worth, we seem to have reached a place where we accept an excess of pride and even arrogance as something people respect and honor. Public figures who often make ridiculous amounts of money are lifted up in our esteem as we watch them proudly announce that they see no reason for anyone to hold them to any kind of standard of behavior. They are not role models. And we have to agree—many of them surely aren’t what we want our children to emulate. Yet each of us is a role model. Whether we live a hugely public lifestyle or a have a much smaller sphere of influence, we impact the lives of others with the way we choose to live. Being proud and being humble don’t have to be opposed to each other. As Christians we know we are children of God and recognize the inherent worth and value of each human being. The problem is when any sense of humility is lost and our pride takes us to a state of egotism that leads us to think we are better than others.

So, let’s consider this: WWJS? (What would Jesus say?).

Calvary Moravian Church

Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost

November 5, 2017

We welcome all members and guests to our service today on this Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost. We are glad that you have come to worship at Calvary this morning!

Please make a special effort to greet those around you in the spirit of Christian fellowship. As the red Ritual of Friendship pad is passed, kindly take a moment to write down your name, address and phone number. If you are our guest today, please fill out a visitor card and place it in the offering plate and pick up one of the visitor's bags in the narthex! During the prelude, you are invited to enter a spirit of reverence and quiet reflection as we prepare to worship the Lord. We kindly request that you silence all phones and pagers. Hearing aid devices are available in the narthex; one of the ushers will be happy to assist you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in honor of Butch and Pam Goforth on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary by Sue, Michael and Wendy Goforth.

Best wishes to George William (William) Burke III and Tracy Lynn Kiker Colvin who were united in marriage on Saturday, October 28, in the Children's Chapel here at Calvary. We wish William and Tracy God's richest blessings as they begin their life together. The couple will live in Clemmons.

Our annual Fall Church Council will be held after worship this morning. We will remain in the sanctuary for Council where you will receive important information regarding the 2018 budget. Additionally, we will be electing new Board members. The 2017 Nominating Committee has nominated the following: For the Board of Elders – William Burke, Hanna Cheek Jackson and Seth McKnight; for the Board of Trustees – Chi-Chi Messick, Bennett Perry and Chese Trivette; and for one of our Petersbrook Regional Conference of Churches representatives – Linda Smith. At Council, members of the congregation will have the opportunity to nominate persons from the floor. (Note: Members wishing to nominate additional persons should secure permission of those to be nominated prior to Council.)

Next Sunday, November 12, we will celebrate the Festival of Christ the Chief Elder, and we will share that day in the Sacrament of Holy Communion. We will be recalling the day in November, 1741 when the announcement was made that Jesus Christ is the Chief Elder of the Moravian Church. Prior to worship, everyone is invited to a Second Sunday breakfast in Fellowship Hall, as we anticipate our celebration of the Chief Elder Festival.

During worship last Sunday, Discipleship Commitment packets for 2018 were available for pick-up by members of the congregation. Packets that were not picked up last week were mailed. The packet includes a congregational letter, narrative budget, financial commitment card for 2018, and a return envelope. Discipleship Commitment Sunday will be November 19, which is also the day on which we will share in our annual Thanksgiving Lovefeast. Members are asked to bring their commitment cards to worship on November 19.

The 2018 Daily Texts have arrived! Prices for 2018 are the same as 2017 and are as follows: Paperback - $10.00; Hardcover - $14.00; and Large Print Paperback - $12.00. The Daily Texts are also available in the popular "Journal" format (includes a day by day calendar along with the texts) for $15. To order any of the Daily Texts versions, simply contact Paul in the church office (336.722.3703) for purchase and pick-up information. For payment, cash (exact change IS required) or check will be accepted. Purchased Daily Texts may be picked up on the table to the right of the church office door.

This Wednesday, November 8, our final fall session of the Calvary @ The Table series will be held with dinner at 5:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. The menu for this Wednesday evening will be Vegetable Beef Soup. A variety of programs for all ages will be held at 6:00 p.m. The Missions Committee is pleased to have a Missions group present each week for the adult program. This week, we are pleased to welcome The Ray of Hope Orphanage. This organization reaches Kenyan children through camps and retreats, by caring for orphans, and by training church leaders who will plant mission-minded churches.

Operation Christmas Child is NOW underway for 2017! Boxes and instructions are now available on the pews in the sanctuary. Please return your packed boxes to the foyer area outside the church office and place under the bulletin boards. Box collection continues through Sunday, November 19. Please help us make this program a success!

The Missions Committee plans again this year to collect non-perishable food items for Sunnyside. If you would like to contribute to this important Thanksgiving Food Offering, please plan to bring your contributions to Calvary on Sunday, November 19, when we will be holding our annual Thanksgiving Lovefeast. If you have any questions, please contact Donna Cheek, chair of the Missions Committee.

The Reverend Betty A. Helms, pastor of New Hope Moravian Church, Newton, NC, will be consecrated a Presbyterian of the Moravian Church next Sunday afternoon, November 12, at 3:00 p.m. at New Hope. A band prelude will begin at 2:30 p.m. The officiating Bishop will be The Right Reverend Lane A. Sapp. A reception will follow. The congregation is cordially invited to attend this consecration.

Please remember in prayer those listed on our weekly prayer lists. The listing of Calvary members is located below. Copies of the prayer list for family members and friends are located on the central table in the narthex.
