Fourth Sunday in Lent: March 11

Worship—11:00 a.m.

This Sunday, March 11, is the Fourth Sunday in Lent. Our organist and pianist, Mary Louise Kapp Peebles, will begin our worship with “Faith” from “Songs Without Words” by Felix Mendelssohn.

Our opening hymn will be the familiar “Christ, the Life of All the Living.” Mr. Tucker Cheek will assist Pastor Lane with worship leadership this Sunday, and he will lead us as we pray a special Lenten liturgy. For the offertory, Mary Louise will play the “Andante” movement from Sonata Opus 109 by Ludwig van Beethoven.

Mr. Cheek will also serve as our Lay Reader, and he will read passages from the Old Testament book of Numbers (21:4-9) and from the Gospel of John (3:14-21). Pastor Lane will share the message with the children, and then he will bring us the sermon for this week, “From Grumbling to Gazing.”

After worship, we will remain in Fellowship Hall for our March Second Sunday luncheon and program, a special fund-raising project—see details below! We look forward to seeing everyone this Sunday for worship and lunch!
