“Give us this bread always”

The book, Sleeping with Bread: Holding What Gives You Life, begins with the story of children orphaned after bombing raids in World War II. Many were safe and cared for in refugee camps, but could not sleep because of the magnitude of what they had lost. Their fears of waking up with no home and no food were so great that someone suggested giving them a piece of bread to take to bed with them. When they held the bread, they could finally sleep. The bread reminded them that they had been fed that day, and they had the security of knowing they would eat again the next day.

The authors of the book, Dennis, Sheila, and Matthew Linn, use this story as a metaphor to introduce a prayer method called the Examen, which originated with Ignatius. In the Examen you reflect upon each day as it ends, with two questions: “For what am I most grateful?” and “For what am I least grateful?” When used daily, these questions can help identify moments when we are most aware of God’s presence in our days and most in need of God’s presence in our days. This prayer practice can deepen one’s spiritual life and help discern one’s call. After Jesus fed the five thousand on the lakeshore, the crowds followed him and asked him for signs that he was from God. Jesus knew they were looking not for spiritual answers but for more physical food. Like the orphaned children, they could not believe they would be fed again without seeing more bread. The crowds wanted proof of God to quell their fears and doubts.

And so it is with us at times. Hold on to what gives you life—Jesus, the bread of life—and you will rest in his love always.

Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost
August 5, 2018

We welcome all members and guests on this Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost. We are glad that you have come to worship at Calvary! We hope you will feel welcome in the Lord's house.

Please make a special effort to greet those around you in the spirit of Christian fellowship. As the Ritual of Friendship pad is passed, kindly take a moment to write down your name, address, and phone number. During the prelude, you are invited to enter a spirit of reverence and quiet reflection as we prepare to worship the Lord. We kindly request that you silence all electronic devices.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We thank Mr. Kaden Pristas for assisting with worship leadership this morning. We also thank our Calvary Band and our pianists, Mary Louise Kapp Peeples and her husband, Wade Peeples, for sharing their musical talents with us today!

Amanda Schumpert will be on vacation through August 12. Appreciation is expressed to Mary Louise Kapp Peeples for her musical direction during Amanda's absence. Amanda will return to the office on Monday morning, August 13.

During this time when we are worshiping in Fellowship Hall, please do not feel like you have to stand for any aspect of the service if it is difficult for you. Without having a "pew" to pull up with, it is sometimes difficult to stand.

Members are advised that the entrance door, located directly off of Poplar Street and across from the parking lot at 205 N. Poplar, will be open on Sunday mornings until 11:15 a.m. for those attending worship. This will facilitate entry to our building and to Fellowship Hall for the worship service. An usher will be available to assist you. This door will be available until further notice.

Today is the last day to join with the Missions Committee in participating in the “Operation Christmas Child” shoe box program! This committee has been placing Christmas-colored shoe boxes on the chairs in our worship space (Fellowship Hall) since early July. Everyone is so busy during the month of November that we have been offering a chance to participate in this valuable program during a time when people are not quite so busy. So, if you have not already done so, please pick up a box (or two), have fun filling it up with your contributions, and leave it at the church. (Instructions will be in the boxes.) The traditional fall program will still occur, and there will still be boxes available in November! Thank you for donating to this important ministry. Any questions, please contact the Missions Committee (Donna Cheek, chair, 336-399-0857).

Next Sunday, August 12, we will celebrate the Festival of August 13th with the sharing of the Sacrament of Holy Communion. On that day, we will remember the Renewal of the Moravian Church on August 13, 1727. On that date in the Herrnhut community, the congregation of exiled members of the Ancient Unitas Fratrum (Moravian Church), living on the estate of Count Nicholas von Zinzendorf, felt the presence of the Holy Spirit and were spiritually renewed at a service of Holy Communion held at the nearby Berthelsdorf Church. This experience brought together the residents of Herrnhut in a spirit of Christian unity, despite their differences and disagreements.

If you would like to greet on Sundays in August and beyond, don't forget to sign up using the “Greeters Notebook” located on the marble buffet in Fellowship Hall. Thank you!!

Anthony's Plot will again this year be gathering school supplies for needy neighborhood students. Have you seen the large purple box sitting just inside the hallway on the way to Fellowship Hall? The Reverend Russ May from Anthony's Plot is calling on us to help collect school supplies to be handed out at their annual Block Party, which will be held later in August. Last year, Calvary was among the churches that helped them collect enough school supplies and shoe vouchers for over 150 neighborhood students. Let's help make this year even better! For a list of all the needed supplies, take one of the “Donation Cards” located on the side of the Donation Box. All items must be ready for pickup no later than the morning of August 15th. Thank you for your generosity as we help students get their new year started off right!

In August, the Moravian Church in North America is welcoming around 40 young adults from all over the Unity for the Unity Youth Heritage Tour 2018, an event that happens once every 7 years. We are grateful that many of our churches here in the Southern province have opened their doors to provide meals and their mission houses to this group. However, we would like to ask if anyone has inflatable mattresses to donate or for us to borrow during the period of August 17-22. If so, please contact Angelica Regalado by email aregalado@mcp.org or by phone 336.575.3530. Your help is greatly appreciated.
