12th Sunday after Pentecost: August 12

Worship—11:00 a.m.

This Sunday, August 12, will be the Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost. This Sunday we will also observe the Festival of August 13th. In celebration of the Festival of August 13th and remembering the spiritual renewal of the Moravian Church on August 13, 1727 in the Herrnhut community, we will pray a special liturgy for this day and share in the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

Our organist and pianist, Mary Louise Kapp Peeples, will begin our worship with “Come With Us, O Blessed Jesus” by Johann Gottfried Walther. Our opening hymn will be the familiar “Christian Hearts in Love United.”

For the offertory, the Chancel Choir will sing “Lord Christ Jesus, Our Salvation,” the text of which was written by our spiritual forefather, John Hus, in 1410 and translated by Moravian composer Dirk French → in 1993. We thank Blake Ingram for being our Lay Reader this Sunday. Blake will share with us readings from the Epistle of 1 John (4:1-13) and from the Gospel of John (17:1-2, 6-20). We also thank the Reverend Dallas W. Prestwood, who will bring us the communion meditation. Our communion service will be “In Celebration of the Holy Spirit.”

We look forward to seeing everyone at Calvary this Sunday! 📍
