11th Sunday after Pentecost: August 5

Worship—11:00 a.m.

This Sunday, August 5, will be the Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost.

Our organist and pianist, Mary Louise Kapp Peeples, will begin our worship with “Come Now, Almighty King” by Healey Willan. Our opening hymn will be the familiar “Come Now, Almighty King” sung to the “Italian Hymn” tune.

We are pleased this Sunday to have Kaden Pristas assist Pastor Lane with worship leadership. Kaden will lead us as we pray together that Liturgy for Adoration.

We are pleased also to have Wade Peeples, husband of Mary Louise, who will play our offertory, “Prelude, Opus 32, No. 5” by Sergei Rachmaninoff. Together with our Calvary Band providing our Band prelude prior to the service, we are indeed blessed to have such wonderful musicians in our midst!!

Kaden will also be our Scriptures reader, and he will share with us readings from the Epistle to the Ephesians (4:1-6) and from the Gospel of John (6:24-35).

Pastor Lane will share the message with the children, and he will bring us the sermon for this Sunday, “A Bread That Never Grows Stale!” Mary Louise will close our worship with “Fughetta in E-Flat Major” by J. K. Fischer.

We look forward to seeing everyone at Calvary this Sunday! ☐
