Jesus in Our Hearts

In Arizona, it's illegal for donkeys to sleep in bathtubs. In New Hampshire, it's against the law to collect seaweed at night. You don't have to look hard to find all kinds of weird laws and traditions that might have made sense at one point, but have lost meaning over time. In Mark 7, Jesus calls out the Pharisees for focusing on human traditions instead of following God with the heart. It is easy to confuse our human customs and traditions with the will of God when we keep doing the same things over the years. This was true for the Pharisees, and I believe this can be true for us as well.

People often ask me what's different about Moravians, and I'll admit it's tempting to respond by talking about Moravian traditions. While I enjoy Moravian traditions, I have found that they can sometimes divide us instead of uniting us. Instead of responding to how Moravians are different, it might be better to respond with how Moravians are similar to Christians everywhere: We are followers of Jesus Christ. Our traditions are in place to bring us closer to Christ, and it's not our traditions, but Christ who defines who we are. Count Zinzendorf believed in a theology of the heart, where the heart is more than just a glass case of emotion, but rather the center of the person. To have Jesus in your heart is to have Christ at the center of who you are. Our Lord Jesus calls us to serve others.

This week I pray that we will find ways to serve others, not out of obligation or tradition, but that we would serve others with gladness because of the love of God that dwells in our hearts.

Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost
September 2, 2018

We welcome all members and guests on this Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost. We are glad that you have come to worship at Calvary! We hope you will feel welcome in the Lord's house.

Please make a special effort to greet those around you in the spirit of Christian fellowship. As the Ritual of Friendship pad is passed, kindly take a moment to write down your name, address, and phone number. During the prelude, you are invited to enter a spirit of reverence and quiet reflection as we prepare to worship the Lord. We kindly request that you silence all electronic devices.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The flowers in worship are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Fred and Marjorie Crouch by their son, Fred Crouch II.

We thank Mr. Bill Burke for assisting with worship leadership this morning. We also thank our Calvary Band, our Chancel Choir, and our pianist, Mary Louise Kapp Peeples, for sharing their musical talents with us today!

This fall's Calvary @ The Table events begin soon....Wednesday, September 12! Be sure to see the enclosed color insert for key details!

If you would like to greet on Sundays in September and beyond, PLEASE don't forget to sign up using the "Greeters Notebook" located on the marble buffet in Fellowship Hall. Thank you!!

The annual Bookmarks Festival will be held next Saturday, September 8. Some of the events will occur in the Calvary sanctuary during the day. Calvary volunteers are needed for various shifts beginning as early as 8:30 a.m., with events ending by 5:30 p.m. If you can assist by serving a shift (or more) as a Calvary volunteer, please contact Scott Peddycord: 336.765.7036 (home) or e-mail: peddycj@bellsouth.net. Additionally, a brochure describing the Bookmarks event and Calvary's involvement in this annual festival may be found on the marble buffet behind Fellowship Hall.

125th Anniversary Celebration – September 9

Next week!!: Calvary's 125th Anniversary Celebration and Sanctuary Re-Dedication! Next Sunday, September 9, we will celebrate Calvary's 125th Anniversary and re-dedicate our newly-renovated sanctuary! Special activities planned for that day include the following:

- A “continental” breakfast beginning at 9:30 a.m. in Fellowship Hall. We will have a guest speaker, the Reverend Dr. C. Daniel Crews, who will provide what will certainly be a most interesting and entertaining “take” historically on the Calvary Church. We look forward to his presentation!
- We will have our 11:00 a.m. worship service in the “new” sanctuary where we will celebrate our anniversary and re-dedicate our beautiful, newly renovated space. During the service, we will offer our worship to God as we sing specially selected hymns, pray a new liturgy specifically written for the occasion by the Reverend Dr. Nola Reed Knouse, and hear beautiful anthems from our choir. Pastor Lane will bring us the sermon for that day.
- Following worship, we will enjoy a catered luncheon (no one has to cook!) in Fellowship Hall, with additional dining outside in our Fellowship Center.

Do you have any historical memorabilia (for example, photographs, documents, etc.) that you would like to display at church on September 9? Artifacts must be “display ready,” meaning they will have to be displayed “as is” (we will not be able to provide special easels). If you plan to bring something, please let Bennett Perry (member of the Anniversary committee) know ahead of time. Thank you!

We hope to see everyone next Sunday for this very special day!

ADDITIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Two special Moravian provincial events are planned during September. Mark your calendars now; more details to come!

Mark your calendars for another "Shred Day!" On Saturday, October 13, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, come to Calvary's back parking lot for our 2018 Shred Day! Our friends from Shamrock Shredding will be with us to take care of any paperwork and sensitive material that we are leery of simply throwing in the trash. So, collect all those documents in a file box (or 2, or 3!) and bring them to Calvary – shredding is only $5 per file box and all the proceeds will go towards Calvary's Youth. And make sure to tell all your friends and family about this great and very useful event!
