TRINITY CHIME

† PRAYER OF MEDITATION †

Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany

Loving God, you have called forth disciples and prophets to live and speak your word. Give us ears to hear, lives to respond, and voices to proclaim the good news of salvation, which we know in our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

Calvary Moravian Church
Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany
February 10, 2019

We welcome all members and guests to our service today on this Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany. We are glad that you have come to worship at Calvary this morning!

Please make a special effort to greet those around you in the spirit of Christian fellowship. As the Ritual of Friendship pad is passed, kindly take a moment to write down your name, address, and phone number. During the prelude, you are invited to enter a spirit of reverence and quiet reflection as we prepare to worship the Lord. We kindly request that you silence all electronic devices.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of John W. Peddycord, by Scott and Elaine Peddycord, and Meghan, John (Wes), and Will Peddycord.

Appreciation is expressed to the Triad Harmony Express, as well as the group's Sound Counsel quartet, for their musical contributions to today's worship service and to the lunch and birthdays celebration after worship. Triad Harmony Express is celebrating its 70th year of harmony in the Triad. They are grateful for the many men who have been part of this proud heritage. Originally under the name, The Auctioneers, and now known as Triad Harmony Express, the chorus of the Winston-Salem Chapter of the Barbershop Harmony Society has represented the chapter with skill, passion, and distinction. They eagerly continue to celebrate the joy of a cappella 4-part harmony and to share it with any and all who love it as much as they do. Sound Counsel is among the busiest quartets in the Barbershop Harmony Society, doing well over 40 appearances a year, bringing lots of harmony, humor, and entertainment to every performance. Their repertoire includes classical rock, R&B, and even country. They have a ball entertaining you in the confidence that "having a ball" is highly contagious! They've come to know it really is!

We thank Mrs. Jean L. Fordham for assisting with worship leadership this morning.

The winter/spring season of the Calvary @ The Table series continues this Wednesday, February 13, with dinner at 5:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. The menu this week will be a Baked Potato and Salad Bar prepared by the youth and children of Calvary. A variety of programs for all ages will be held at 6:00 p.m. A nursery will also be available from 5:45-7:15 p.m. We hope you will plan to join your fellow members for this ongoing series, which will continue through April 10.

The annual “Moravian Music on the Mountain” weekend will be held February 22-24 at Laurel Ridge’s Higgins Lodge. This year’s music leaders will be Jim White, choral leader, and Robah Ogburn, band leader. Jim is choir director at Raleigh Moravian Church, and Robah is a well known band leader and instructor in this area. The devotional leader this year will be the Reverend Dennis (Denny) Rohn. On Sunday, attendees will sing or play and worship at Mountain Laurel Moravian Fellowship; this is both an annual and traditional part of this special weekend! This annual music weekend is always well-attended, and registration is now open and must be completed soon! For more information or to register, contact Laurel Ridge at 336.359.2951 or 888-831-5922 (toll-free) or via email: info@laurelridge.org.

The 2019 Moravian Women’s Conference will be held June 20-23 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in downtown Winston-Salem. The conference offers an opportunity for Moravian women to learn, worship, sing, and share ideas that strengthen faith and ties to the Moravian Church. Please see the enclosed white insert for details and registration information.

The Board of Cooperative Ministries will host the annual “Leadership Focus” conference on Saturday, February 23, 9:00 a.m. to 2:15 p.m., and the event will be held at Calvary. The conference theme is: “Won’t You Be My Neighbor? Building Christian Community in the 21st Century.” Being the church in the twenty-first century calls us to new challenges and demands greater commitment and understanding of our faith and action. This year we’ll explore how we as “Moravian Christians” can truly “be neighbors” in our communities and the world. How can Moravians serve as neighbors in ways that enrich our spiritual lives, congregational lives, and mission in the world? The keynote presentation will be given by Winston-Salem native, Pastor Terrance Hawkins, founder and director of Lit City (a youth development initiative) and currently serves as the Co-Director of the School of Love, a division of Love Out Loud – striving to grow the church in its love for God and its neighbors. If you would like to attend, Calvary will pay for your registration costs. Please contact Amanda Schumpert for information.

Renovations are underway in the 2nd floor office. Please “excuse the mess” while these needed renovations are being done and items normally in the office are stored elsewhere. Your cooperation and understanding is appreciated.

The closing date for the March 2019 “Calvary Connection” newsletter is this Wednesday, February 13, at 4:30 p.m.

Net-Ripping Worthy

I was a “late adopter” of social media. As I observed others engaging Facebook and Twitter, it often appeared that the downside outweighed the good. However, as more sources began disseminating information via such platforms, I eventually broke down and entered the fray. For me, the challenging aspect in so doing is determining whom to “follow.” Not everyone shares information that is worthy of my time, attention, and commitment. Therefore, determining whom to follow ultimately comes down to answering the question, “Who is worthy enough to follow?” In reality, however, that is not just a question for social media. It’s a question for life. In life, we must constantly ask ourselves who is worthy of receiving our commitment, loyalty, service, and followership.

In today’s Gospel lesson, we read Luke’s account of the calling of the first disciples, as Simon Peter, James, and John encounter Jesus in a miraculous manner. Confronted by his power and holiness, they make the decision that not only is Jesus worthy enough to follow, he is worthy enough for them to give up all that they have in order to follow him, including the greatest financial blessing that they have ever received: “And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him” (Luke 5:11 ESV). Speaking of the lesson Simon Peter learned in this encounter, pastor and author J. R. Briggs notes: “Peter learned that sometimes Jesus’ blessings are so great that they rip nets. He realized Jesus was worthy enough to follow, even if it meant walking away at the very moment of a significant financial increase.”

This week, reflect on the fact that even if we must leave behind all that we have, including net-ripping blessings beyond our wildest dreams, Jesus is more than worthy enough for us to follow. He demonstrated that on the cross. Our Lamb has conquered; let us follow him.

Rusty Rushing, pastor, Peace Moravian Church, Charlotte, NC
