

September 17-27, 2020

A look at the week ahead...and beyond!

Mid-September through October at Calvary

This Week's Calendar: Sept. 20-27, 2020

The month of September is quickly racing by, as we settle into some, but unfortunately not all (due to the health crisis), of our normal fall programming. In this difficult pandemic time, we are still fortunate to be able to have many of our "traditional" activities and have even created many new things, which hopefully will continue after the pandemic!

Since September 13, we have been participating in our 2020 Discipleship emphasis, "Discipleship in the Midst," with the theme, "In the midst of all these things." Appreciation is expressed to the Discipleship Committee for their excellent work on this program. We have been enjoying worship services built around this theme, and we look forward to Discipleship Dedication Sunday, which is September 27. Because our worship is not taking place in person this year, each family is requested to send in its commitment card on or about Sunday, September 27.

We have two remaining Sundays in September...the 20th (see service details below) and 27th (yes, the month is indeed speeding by!) and four Sundays during the month of October. We will begin October (Sunday, the 4th) with Holy Communion during worship in recognition of World Communion Sunday.

Additionally, there are many other events happening at Calvary during September and October. This issue of Calvary Weekly Plus lists many of the activities planned. We hope you will enjoy the beginning of the fall season 2020 (note: fall actually begins this coming Tuesday, September 22). Wishing everyone a good weekend ahead and a wonderful late September through October season!

Update from the New Life Class

The New Life Class, under the leadership of Barbara Howard, meets VIA ZOOM each Sunday morning. The class has selected 2 Kings as its current text for study. We look at the historical context, then apply lessons to our lives. We also share prayer requests, catch up with each other and just connect! To accommodate rehearsals for the Calvary Ringers on Sunday, the class has switched its meeting time to 10:15 a.m. You may join the class as follows:

Join the “Calvary Quilt”!!

As a way of helping keep our congregation connected while we are apart, we are launching a small handful of projects called “Calvary Collaboratives.” These projects will allow us to work together on creative endeavors, but we’ll be able to do it from the comfort and safety of our own homes. Our first collaborative is going to be a Calvary family quilt. Don’t worry! You don’t need to know how to sew! Every household that wants to participate will be sent a blank piece of fabric—a quilt square—along with directions for how to decorate that fabric to represent your household. You can use fabric markers, iron-on transfers, or even Sharpies. Once everyone returns their quilt squares, they’ll be sewn together into a big, beautiful masterpiece, which we’ll display for years to come. We’d like this project to involve as many of you as possible. To receive a blank quilt square, please call or email Lydia Ingram ASAP at 210.882.0241 or via email at Lydia.K.Ingram@gmail.com. Finished squares should be returned by Sept. 30th. Details for how to decorate and return squares will be included along with the blank quilt square. Request your square today! (At right, what the quilt might look like!) ★CWP

ONLINE BOOK GROUP

October 5—November 9

A new online book group, led by Pastor Chaz, will run from October 5 through November 9. The program is called “Life Together in a World Apart.” We will be reading together Bonhoeffer’s classic book Life Together. There will be a video sent out every other week setting up the section and prompting some discussion topics. In between each of those weeks we will have private zoom discussion with just those in the study. There will also be a private Facebook group where the group can have continued conversation through the study. If you would like to sign up, use this Google form link:

<https://forms.gle/tE4sku4yJLtiihYaA>

The schedule by week is as follows: October 5 and 12 – Chapters 1-2; October 19 and 26 – Chapters 3 and 4; and November 2 and 9 – Chapter 5.
