Pastor's Corner—October

from Pastor Chaz

Life Together in a World Apart

We have spent a lot of time as a church talking about what it means to be a community during these uncertain times of the COVID-19 pandemic. This has been a moment in history that has called our attention to what it means to be connected as humans. It has disrupted even the very basic notion of being in physical groups with one another.

As a society we have adapted how we do things to meet this threat, but what I find now is that all of this can become very exhausting. I don't know about you, but there have been days when I have found myself more tired than normal even though I may have been "doing" less. I believe part of this tiredness comes from that fact that we find ourselves running a marathon instead of sprint.

We as a society quickly banded together to try to keep one another safe, but now we find ourselves in it for the long haul. And that can be exhausting. So how do we stay in the race? How do we make sure we have what it takes to keep going in this world that feels so apart at times?

We want to wrestle with some of those questions in our first online book group at Calvary. We will read together Dietrich Bonhoeffer's classic text Life Together. It is his reflection on living in community during Germany's most challenging time as a nation.

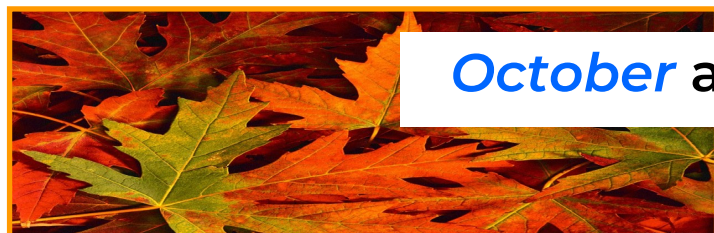

Every other week there will be a video to watch, which details the chapters and some discussion topics, followed by an online zoom discussion the next week. There is also a private Facebook page for just those in the book group. This is a way for people to feel safer about sharing their thoughts and opinions.

You can sign up by going to <https://forms.gle/RTqUwor5vZ3nWNe76>. You can also find the link on Calvary's Facebook page. I hope you will consider joining us for this. It will be a way for us to talk about what a Christ centered community means during these continually challenging times. *CC

The arrival of October is announced by the ever-changing colors of the leaves, the cooler weather, and especially the notable increase in activities associated with the fall and upcoming holiday seasons. True, the pandemic has forced a number of changes to our traditional programming. However, we are continuing to add new exciting opportunities. There is still much to look forward to, in addition to praying that this crisis will be over as soon as possible!

This October, there are four Sundays during the month. We begin the month with the annual observance of World Communion on Sunday, October 4, which will be the 18th Sunday after Pentecost. Holy Communion will be shared during worship at 11:00 a.m. Since we are not worshipping yet in person, you are invited to share Holy Communion in your own homes with the elements you have there.

Sunday, October 11, will be the 19th Sunday after Pentecost. The next Sunday, October 18, will be the 20th Sunday after Pentecost. The last Sunday in October is the 25th, the 21st Sunday after Pentecost.

In spite of the current health crisis, we still have a busy October and fall 2020 before us.

We hope you will be able to take advantage of our October services and events. On Sunday mornings, join us for the live stream broadcast of the 11:00 a.m. service. And have a great October!

Maxims from Monsieur Paul:

“Jesus does not mind one bit.”

Paul's Maxim for October 2020:

“Act like Jesus!”

During recent vacation time, I was able to see the latest version of the Titanic story, about the famous liner that went down on its maiden voyage in 1912. This version was written by Julian Fellowes, the author of Downton Abbey, so I knew that it would be good. While remaining very historically accurate, this version was far more emotional than previous treatments of the story, focusing more on the difference between the classes, the rigid standards of conduct and prejudices that were present during the Edwardian period, and the angst, terror, sorrow, and loss that was felt by all classes on that fateful night. The passengers aboard were a true mix of humanity at the time, from self-made and inherited millionaires, to the poorest of immigrants, the latter who had paid $350-$900 (in 2020 dollars), literally their entire life savings, for a chance at a better life in America.

Some, but certainly not all, of the first class passengers were, as one might call them, “high maintenance,” demanding the best of services, which certainly was not surprising given first class ticket prices which started at $3,500 in today's currency, a lot of money in 1912. Importantly though, some of these passengers were particularly distrustful and resentful of anyone not in their social classes. They were particularly glad that second class and third class (a.k.a. steerage) were physically separated from them, often by lock and key, and could not enter first class without permission. However, on Sunday morning, April 14, the Titanic relaxed these restrictions long enough to allow ALL passengers to attend an interdenominational service in the first class dining saloon. People from all classes attended. In the version I was watching, some of the first class passengers were not happy to see other classes allowed in to “their worship.” One passenger said, “I can't believe they are allowing second class, servants, and steerage into our service. I think it is disgraceful.” Another passenger, the wife of an English Earl, and thus very high in society said, “And some of these people look suspiciously Catholic.” The Earl responded much more charitably, “I don't think Jesus minds one bit.”

Let's resist the temptation to be too hard on the first class passengers, thinking of them as snobby, conceited people who thought themselves better than others. Even in 2020, any one of us can, at any point in time, be just as snobby and conceited. The current divisive environment is rife with examples of this. Romans 12:16 is instructive: “Live in harmony with each other. Do not be arrogant, but associate with humble people. Do not think that you are wiser than you really are” (International Standard version). The Earl was right: Jesus doesn't mind a bit. He DOES mind when we do not treat others with respect and fairly. He DOES mind when we criticize and condemn others with whom we disagree. He DOES mind when we don't treat our fellow sisters and brothers with love.

More and more every day, I see “Black lives matter” signs popping up in many places. I am very glad to see these signs, but I am not glad for the divisiveness, violence, and deaths that have preceded them and show no sign of stopping. Guess what? Not only do black lives matter, lives of all colors matter. Chinese lives matter. Australian lives matter. Indian lives matter. American lives matter. Every other country's lives matter. Straight and gay lives matter. Catholic, Muslim, Hindu, and protestant lives matter. There is NO LIFE that does not matter to our Savior.

The phrase, “What would Jesus do?” or WWJD, is often used. The thought is right on target. However, I personally prefer, “What would the Savior do?” which acknowledges that our loving Lord died on the cross for our salvation.

Can we do anything less than “act like him”?

Joint Board and Elders' Update—September

by Bob Snyder, Vice-Chair—Board of Elders

The Calvary Joint Board and the Board of Elders both met last on September 21, 2020 via ZOOM. Highlights from these meetings are as follows:

- ◆ Joint Board:
  - ◆ Approved plans for the remainder of the year, including Advent and Christmas (see pages 5-6).
- ◆ The Elders did not have an official meeting for September. However, the following was approved via email:
  - ◆ A request from Doug Hall to drop his Associate Member status.

The next meetings of the Joint Board and the Elders will be on Monday, October 19, at times to be announced. The October meetings will be done via ZOOM. ★CC

"Tributes" reflects information received as of 9/16/2020. Tributes received after this date will be reported in the next newsletter. Each gift is graciously appreciated and goes into our General Fund unless otherwise noted.

Trustees' Update—September

by Spencer Bullins—Chair,
Board of Trustees

The Calvary Board of Trustees last met on September 21, 2020 via ZOOM.

The Trustees were joined on ZOOM by Bonnie Suther of UBS in Winston-Salem. Bonnie gave an update on the process of moving investment accounts from Wells Fargo to UBS. The Calvary Moravian Investment funds are now at UBS in a PACE account (actively managed for non-profits). Bonnie went over details about the percentages in various types of market investments such as Equities, Bonds, and others. We plan to create an Investment sub-committee under the Trustees which will work closely with UBS going forward. However, Bonnie Suther will continue to update the Trustees directly as well.

The next meeting of the Trustees is planned for Monday, October 19, following the Joint Board meeting at 6:30 p.m. The meeting will be done via ZOOM. ★CC

Update on Calvary's Fall Church Council

Knowing that COVID-19 would present various obstacles for convening congregational Council meetings this fall, the Provincial Elders' Conference recently sent a letter containing suggested guidelines.

The PEC consulted parliamentarians and legal counsel in formulating these guidelines so any of their suggestions to congregations were in compliance with the provincial constitution and its rules and regulations.

After reviewing this material, the Joint Board of Calvary Moravian Church decided to use the guideline outlined in Option #1 of the PEC's September 3, 2020 letter:

- The PEC has recommended congregations arrange to have a minimal congregation council designated only to fulfill the requirement to hold an annual meeting.
- A limited number of church board members will be attending this council on behalf of the congregation (held by ZOOM). Church Members are not expected to attend due to Phase 2.5 limitations. There will not be a quorum.
- The one and only item of business at this meeting will be: a motion to adjourn after setting a date for the next congregational council (PEC recommends sometime in the first quarter of 2021)

This means that current board members whose terms are expiring December 31, 2020 will remain in office until their successors are elected at the next scheduled council meeting.

The Nominating Committee has already met and will continue to meet to prepare a ballot of nominees for election at the next scheduled council.

Calvary Advent and Christmas 2020

The letter below was sent to Calvary's current email list on September 23.

In light of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Joint Board recently approved an exciting and creative plan for celebrating the Advent and Christmas season.

As you know, we have continued to follow the guidance of our Provincial Elders' Conference and our state government in making decisions regarding the resumption of "in-person" worship. As we hopefully move toward Phase 3 in the coming weeks, the Joint Board will again consider "in person" worship opportunities. Our goal is to act responsibly and to carefully safeguard the health and well-being of the Calvary congregation.

That being said, our Advent and Christmas services have been planned so they can be used with an in-person or live stream audience. However, the Joint Board decided that two of these services, Sunday, December 13, and Christmas Eve, December 24, will need to be pre-recorded or live streamed with no in-person participation.

The Christmas Eve Lovefeast and Candle service will be recorded ahead of time and made available to you for viewing anytime on Christmas Eve via YouTube and Facebook. We are working on plans now for the possible distribution of candles for you to use in your homes when you join us for this virtual Christmas celebration. More details will follow in the coming weeks.

Though we realize that this news will be disappointing, we believe it is necessary to safeguard the health and well-being of our congregation and the wider community who shares this celebration with us each year.

Calvary Advent and Christmas 2020

These decisions were not easy to make but we are working diligently to help our congregation celebrate in new and exciting ways despite the COVID-19 virus. Your understanding, patience, and support is greatly appreciated.

Realizing that so many things have been cancelled this year due to the pandemic, part of our plan also includes an exciting Advent Afternoons Concert Series. This series of musical offerings will be offered each afternoon of the Advent season beginning Sunday, November 29. Details of each of these afternoons will come as they are solidified. We are so excited to collaborate with some of our established partners, enabling us to offer these additional opportunities to help you and your family celebrate this glorious season of Jesus' birth!

COVID-19 has taught us many important lessons about the value of faith and our need for one another. Perhaps this year, it will teach us that the news of Christ's birth can penetrate our hearts with renewed joy even though some of the ways we normally celebrate will be altered. As your pastor, my earnest prayer is this experience will help us appreciate even more the wonder of God's love for each of us made flesh in Jesus Christ!

If you have questions or concerns, please feel to contact the pastors or any member of the Joint Board. *CC

With hope, Pastor Lane

ONLINE BOOK GROUP October 5—November 9

A new online book group, led by Pastor Chaz, will run from October 5 through November 9. The program is called "Life Together in a World Apart." We will be reading together Bonhoeffer's classic book Life Together. There will be a video sent out every other week setting up the section and prompting some discussion topics. In between each of those weeks we will have private zoom discussion with just those in the study. There will also be a private Facebook group where the group can have continued conversation through the study. If you would like to sign up, use this Google form link:

<https://forms.gle/tE4sku4yJLtiIhYaA>

The schedule by week is as follows: October 5 and 12 – Chapters 1-2; October 19 and 26 – Chapters 3 and 4; and November 2 and 9 – Chapter 5.

You can buy a copy of the book at this amazon link:

Christian Education Update

from Amanda Schumpert

Just as everything else in our world right now, Christian Education and Formation at Calvary Moravian will look a little different this year. Some of you, over the past few weeks, have begun to get a weekly Christian Formation "E-Blast" from a platform called flocknote. In it will be links, videos, zoom meeting links and reminders, as well as information on every aspect of our usual Christian Education and Formation.

We are entering our Calvary family's email addresses into flocknote manually to make sure we are all organized correctly, so it is taking a bit of time. Over the course of October, you will all be entered in and receiving the weekly correspondence. It also allows us to send text message reminders to specific groups or our entire church, as well as options to create a phone tree for those of you that prefer a phone call to text or email. There are many possibilities that we will explore over time.

In the meantime, please enjoy the content in the E-Blast and take a few moments each week to use this tool and see the fun and creative ways we are engaging with each of you across all ages in this time. ★CC

College Student Card Ministry Help

We had a great response to our bulletin request in September asking for volunteers to write cards to our college students. We have a system in place and have begun connecting with each of them.

However, we need TWO more volunteers! The deal is, you are assigned a month and over the course of the month, you'll send one card to each of our 12 college students.

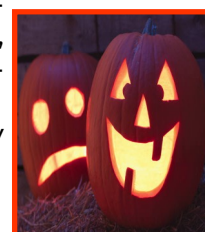

Thank you to those who have volunteered already and if you're a card-writer and love snail mail, let Amanda know and she'll get you the information! Thank you. ★CC

Halloween at Calvary Moravian

As with nearly everything these days, Halloween might look a little different this year than our typical Trunk or Treat. However, we are committed to doing a version of this event and celebrating with all our younger members in costume with candy and all the fun! Plans are still underway, but what we know we need is CANDY! If you are interested in helping us create a wonderful time for our kids, please bring a bag of your favorite Halloween candy by the church over the first three weeks of October. Preferred drop offs are Mondays, from 9am-12pm or, better yet, you can combine bringing candy with dropping off the listed Sunnyside items the Missions Committee will be collecting this month on Tuesday, Oct. 20 (4-6 p.m.) and Sunday, October 25 (2-4 p.m.).

Contact Amanda with any questions. And, thank you! ★CC

Lovefeast in a Box

If you've been at Calvary for a while, you might remember the Lovefeast-in-a-Box™ program launched by our Sisters Fellowship several years ago. The original idea was to connect our faraway friends and family with Christmas Eve lovefeasts by shipping dressed candles, coffee fixins, Moravian cookies, and the worship ode in tidy packages, so that long-distance worshippers could participate with us via livestream on Christmas Eve. Now, in light of the pandemic and the Joint Board's decision to conduct Christmas Eve worship via livestream only, this Lovefeast-in-a-Box concept is more important than ever before! If you are already a local Calvary member, we are working on a plan to get you items you'll need to participate in livestream Christmas Eve worship from home. You do not need to order for your personal household. However, if you'd like to order a box for your extended family and friends (either in separate households around town or far, far away), now is the time!

Visit Lovefeastinabox.com to place an order. You can purchase individual or double boxes, or you can order a family pack (new this year; it serves 6). To limit physical contact, boxes will NOT be available for pick-up — they'll only be available to ship — so have shipping addresses ready when you go online. Orders must be placed by November 1. We know thousands of people in our community and beyond cherish their time at Calvary each Christmas Eve. While we are deeply saddened to be unable to celebrate the Christmas lovefeast together in person this year, we hope you will help us connect as many people as possible to this special lovefeast-at-a-distance. Questions? Contact Amanda Schumpert (amood@calvarymoravian.org) or Elaine Peddycord (peddycj@bellsouth.net). ★CC
