Be Present with Your Servants, Lord 734

- 1 Be present with your servants, Lord;
we look to you with one accord;
refresh and strengthen us anew,
and bless what in your name we do.
- 2 O teach us all your perfect will to understand and to fulfill:
when human insight fails, give light;
this will direct our steps aright.
- 3 The Lord's joy be our strength and stay in our employ from day to day;
our thoughts and our activity through Jesus' merits hallowed be.

PROCLAIMING GOD'S LOVE

LITURGY OF SERVANTHOOD

Sing to the Lord a New Song

O Lord, our God, your wisdom and power are beyond our comprehension. Yet our hearts know you intimately.

Our love for you and our awe of you join together in our praise to your holy name.

You are the one we turn to when we hear your invitation to be your disciples; when we feel the call to servanthood.

You, O Lord, provide strength and wisdom for each day and hope for the journey.

It is by faith in you that we respond to your call to serve.

We believe that you are our source of love and provide the resources for loving.

We believe that you redeem not only our lives but also our actions so that our small human offerings have divine results.

We believe that your Spirit empowers us to be all that you created us to be for your purpose.

Holy God of all creation, give us vision, love and nerve to respond to our first calling on this earth to care and serve. Show the world by our example how to live each waking hour, as we strive to humbly follow, sharing your creative power.

Yet the call to serve can, at times, be overwhelming. The need before us is more than one person can handle alone.

We thank you, Lord, for calling us to work as one body. Your Body is made manifest in us as we work together to serve your children.

Lord, many people in our community show your love through their actions.

They shelter the homeless. They feed the hungry. They accompany the elderly. They champion the battle with mental illness. They help others become better parents. They donate their blood, their sweat, and their personal belongings.

Lord, many people in our church generously offer their lives to your service.

They teach your word. They visit the sick and home-bound. They provide fellowship for our church family. They serve as leaders and decision makers. They make worship a meaningful experience. They support our ministry in prayer.

Let us identify the organizations in our church and community that make up the tangible Body of Christ.

Lord, we thank you for these people whom you have joined together for your purpose.

We thank you for people who live what they believe and believe what they live. We thank you for the Spirit of Christ which dwells in such people in our church and community.

By your grace, Lord, we stand among those who will hear you say, "I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, sick and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me."

And we will say, "Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked or in prison?"

And you will assure us, Lord, with your words, “Just as you have done it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.”

SERVICE

Ye who called, ye who called to Christ’s service are,
join together, join together both in work and prayer;
venture all on him, our Lord, who assures us in his word,
we are always, we are always objects of his care.

May we faithful, may we faithful in our service be,
truly careful, truly careful in our ministry;
keep us to your church fast bound, in the faith preserve us sound, often weeping, often weeping, grateful tears of joy.
